

Jewish Child
& Family Services
Redefine What's Possible.

Project Esther: The Chicago Jewish Adoption Network presents

THE POWER OF NARRATIVE: MAKING SENSE OF YOUR ADOPTION STORY

Join us as author Carrie Goldman leads an engaging conversation around current issues affecting adoptees and adoptive families, and interweaves compelling personal stories as told by our diverse panel of young adult adopted persons. Learn to give children the emotional tools to understand, retell and embrace their own life narrative.

THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 2018 | 7–8:30PM

Jewish Child & Family Services
Abe and Ida Cooper Center
Esther Knapp Campus
6639 N. Kedzie | Chicago, IL

REGISTER TODAY!

This event is free of charge, and open to the community.
Refreshments will be served. Kosher dietary laws observed.

CONTACT

Marsha Raynes | 847.745.5408 | MarshaRaynes@jcfs.org | jcfs.org

This event is made possible by a generous gift from the Rubens Family Foundation.

CARRIE GOLDMAN

Carrie Goldman is an award-winning author and speaker. She is the author of “Bullied: What Every Parent, Teacher and Kid Needs to Know about Ending the Cycle of Fear.” She also writes for the premier adoption blog “Portrait of Adoption,” and has two acclaimed children’s books, “Jazzy’s Quest: Adopted and Amazing” and “Jazzy’s Quest: What Matters Most (Volume 2).” She has been featured in numerous national media outlets. Goldman and her husband have three daughters, through adoption and birth.