

Project Esther: The Chicago Jewish Adoption Network with support from the Rubens Family Foundation presents:

Adoption and Judaism: Like Esther, Moses and Ruth

Featuring Rabbi Susan Silverman

Thursday, March 9, 2017
7 - 8:30 pm

Beth Hillel Congregation Bnai Emunah

3220 Big Tree Ln, Wilmette

Free and Open to the Community

Please join us for an engaging and interactive evening with Rabbi Susan Silverman as she discusses her compelling memoir, Casting Lots: Creating a Family in a Beautiful, Broken World and:

- What calls us to become permanent, loving families for children who need them
- Why adoption enriches our families and communities
- How adoption and Judaism are woven together

Susan Silverman is a rabbi, author, activist and mom. She has written for, and appeared in many publications including The Forward, The Boston Globe, The New York Times, and The Huffington Post. She can be heard on NPR's Fresh Air, and with her sister, comedian Sarah Silverman, on ABC's The View. She is the Founding Director of Second Nurture: Every Child Deserves a Family – And a Community. Susan and her spouse, Yosef Abramowitz, live in Israel and have five children, through birth and adoption.
