

The Final Confession

From the Code of Jewish Law, Yoreh Deah 338:

When one is moving close to death, the person is told, "Many have confessed and not died, and many did not confess and died. With the reward for your confession, may you live".

All who confess have a share in the world to come.

If one cannot confess verbally, let them confess in their heart.

If they do not know the formula, let them say, "May my death be a Kapara, an atonement for my sins."

Translation by Rabbi Joseph S. Ozarowski

Sh'ma

שְׁמַע יִשְׂרָאֵל, יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ, יְיָ אֶחָד.
בְּרוּךְ שֵׁם כְּבוֹד מְלֻכּוֹתוֹ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד.

*Sh'ma Yis-ra-el, A-do-nai E-lo-hei-nu, A-do-nai E-chad.
Ba-ruch Shem k'vod mal-chu-to l'o-lam va'ed.*

Hear, O Israel: Ado-nai is our God, Ado-nai is One. Blessed is God's glorious kingdom forever and ever.

Supporting you in times of illness and loss

If you are ill, bereaved, or caring for a loved one, or if you work with people facing life's most difficult transitions, the JHNC offers the comfort of human connection, the spiritual support of Jewish tradition, and a sense of community. We recognize that there are multiple components of health: the body, the mind and the spirit. Our services and programs are designed to provide support and assistance to members of the Jewish community when they need it most.

Each year, JHNC helps over 1,000 individuals and their families cope with illness, addiction and loss. Your generous gift to the JHNC endowment fund ensures that now and in the future we are here for people when they need us most. Please call Barbara Chandler at 312-673-3211.*
