

DEFERRED ACTION FOR CHILDHOOD ARRIVALS (DACA): WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

A virtual program in partnership with Chicago Public Library

DACA gives eligible people who came to the United States as children, protection from deportation and provides for work authorization and better life opportunities.

Join a representative from HIAS Immigration & Citizenship, a leader supporting immigrants for over 100 years, to learn about the history and current status of DACA, along with eligibility for initial and renewal applications. The presentation will be followed by Q&A.
