For some Jews in recovery, working a 12-Step program is the first experience of continuous striving toward relationship with a Higher Power. For those who would like to experience the ways in which Jewish prayers and practices may enhance a 12-Step program of recovery, these suggestions are offered. May the God of your understanding bless you on your journey to wholeness/shleimut and healing/refuah.

When describing the Eleventh Step in the chapter ‘Into Action’, the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous provides a guide for seeking conscious contact with the God of our understanding throughout the day. In this booklet we follow the Big Book’s outline for evening, morning, and daytime activities, offering Jewish prayers that may serve the intention of each moment.

...the way to rectification and renewal, to deep solace and healing, to meaning and eternal tranquility is only through actively seeking Your Will. Thank You, God, for leading me to this understanding.
Rebbe Nachman of Breslov

We have chosen in this pamphlet to refer to the Deity of Israel as God. Many people use other and varied names to refer to their Higher Power, including Lord, Hashem, Adonai, Elohim/Elokim, Source of All Being, Source of Life, and more. Some prefer to write “G-d” in printed English. In these readings and meditations we invite you to use a Name for the God of your understanding that is most comfortable for you. As this pamphlet contains God’s name in both Hebrew and English, please treat it with appropriate respect.

The Gift of Free Will

God of wonders,
You’ve given me
The most wonderful
Of all gifts—
The gift of free will.
May my will never deviate
From Your holy Will.
Guide me always,
So that all the choices I make
Are good ones—
Choices that are
In harmony with Your Will,
As long as I live.

Rebbe Nachman of Breslov

I thank You, Eternal One, for returning my soul to me with compassion. Your faithfulness is great.

I surrender all of myself to You, God.

I ask God to give back to me what I need to do God's will today.

Modeh/Modah ani lifanecha melech chai v'kayam.

Shehechezarta bi nishmahti b'chemlah, rabah emunatecha.

One thing have I asked of the Lord, that I will seek: That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life...

Psalm 27: 4

Achat sha’alti me’eit Adonai otah avakeish:
Shivti b’veit Adonai kol yemei chayai

The traditional Jewish practice is to pray standard prayers every morning, including the Sh’ma and the Amidah (The Shemoneh Esrei, The Silent Devotion). These can be found in all major Jewish prayerbooks.

...when we retire at night, we constructively review our day... after making our review we ask God’s forgiveness and inquire what corrective measures should be taken. (Alcoholics Anonymous p.86)

The following are adapted excerpts from the Bedtime Sh’ma/Kriat Sh’ma al ha-Mita/

Forgiving Others Each Night:
I forgive anyone who made me angry or upset or who hurt me, my body, my things, my feelings, or anything that is mine; by accident or on purpose; by words, actions, or thoughts. I forgive each one. May nobody be punished because of me. May it be your will God—God of my ancestors—that I not hurt anyone anymore.

Blessed are you God, the Guide of my life, who makes my eyes heavy and my eyelids sleepy. May it be your will God—God of my ancestors—that I lie down to sleep in peace and awake in peace. May I not be upset by any bad dreams or thoughts. May You help me see in the dark, for it is You who illuminates the pupil of the eye. Blessed are you God, whose Radiance lights up the world.

Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, The Lord is One. Sh’math Yis-ra-el, Ado-nai E-lo-hei-nu, Ado-nai E-chad.

Blessed is God’s glorious kingdom forever and ever. Ba-ruch Shem k’vod mal-chu-to l’o-la-m va’ed.

Into God’s hands I place my spirit B’yado af’kid ruchi

When I sleep and when I wake beit ishan v’ah’ira

And with my spirit, my body v’im ruchi g’viyati

God is with me, I will not be afraid Adonai li v’o’ra

We usually conclude the period of meditation with a prayer that we be shown all through the day what our next step is to be, that we be given whatever we need to take care of such problems. (Alcoholics Anonymous p.87)

One thing have I asked of the Lord, that I will seek:
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life...

Psalm 27: 4

If we belong to a religious denomination which requires a definite morning devotion, we attend to that also. (Alcoholics Anonymous p.87)

The traditional Jewish practice is to pray standard prayers every morning, including the Sh’ma and the Amidah (The Shemoneh Esrei, The Silent Devotion). These can be found in all major Jewish prayerbooks.

As we go through the day we pause, when agitated or doubtful, and ask for the right thought or action... “Thy will be done.” (Alcoholics Anonymous p.87-88)

Here are some thoughts or kavanot (often translated as “intentions” or “directions of the heart”) that can help us focus our thoughts or actions during the day.

God is with me, I will not be afraid Adonai li v’o’ra
